the safety of Dauch, an American, and as a spy at Chihuahua.

Mr. Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador continued to await reports on the manner of the killing of Benton, before reporting to his government at London.

Senator Shively, acting chairman of the foreign relations committee, conferred with President Wilson about foreign affairs and got all the information received by the president in the killing of Benton. The senator said afterward that the Benton incident was "still in process of investigation."

Senator Shively was of the opinion that the Mexican situation would not be generally debated in the senate at least until all the facts in the Benton case had been gathered and then, if it came up, the subject would be introduced in connection with pending regulations asking that the United States take certain steps to protect foreigners in Mexico.

Judgment is to be reserved by the American government until other details sought by independent investigation are received. In the meantime, the feeling of apprehension for the safety of Gustav Dauch, Roger Lawrence and an Englishman named Lurie, as well as other missing foreigners, served to emphasize the extent to which the United States government has become involved in obtaining protection of the foreign residents in Mexico.

Thus far the state department has earned only Villa's side of the case which was that Benton provoked a quarrel, was armed and threatened Villa's life. The right of the rebel commander to courtmartial and execute Benton if he did make an attempt on Villa's life, is no, questioned by American officials.

The story of Benton's friends that he was unarmed, that he was killed by Villa in person and that the court martial was nothing but an inquest is being carefully taken into consideration by officials here.

Talk of armed intervention possible speeches in the senate by those who favor a drastic policy, and a general agitation is again in the air.
Administration officials realize that the situation is fraught with all sorts of possibilities in which the neckline often plays a vital part.

Administration leaders were confident today that they would be supported by the majority of the Democrats as well as by many Republicans in their efforts to keep the question within the confines of the senate foreign relations committee and the executive department of the government. Legislation of most senators seemed to be to have the question in the hands of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

Fearing that a repetition of the Benton incident may force the American government to a change of policy is apparent in official circles.
But there is also a strong sentiment that "no one outside of Mexico can intermeddle her affairs."

Suggestion that the rebel proclamation is occasioned by a possible plan to form a new republic out of the northern Mexican states is not

SHADES

HUNG FREE

The task of hanging the shades is solved much in the same light as setting up the fall stove. At this store we take all that work off the housewife's hands.

We do the work and do it well. It is just a part of this store's service to persons that increases the annual good will between you and ourselves.

Nothing detracts more from the appearance of a building than unsightly window shades. What every window really needs is a Victor brand made shade. Victor shades are guaranteed not to stretch, fade or curl at edges.
Every shade purchased here is hung in your window without extra cost. a new one here. Some have believed that those advocating such a step in really looked toward annexation to the United States of northern Mexico. The stand which President Wilson took in his Mobile speech against annexing any more territory is recalled in this connection. As a matter of fact, annexation has never received the serious consideration of officials here.

"CASCARETS" CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salt, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.
A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget this children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.

TROOP TRAIN IS BLOWN UP; FIFTY-SIX KILLED

Terrific Explosion, Brought About by Rebels Demolishes Government Cars Loaded With Mexican Federal Infantry.

ENGLISH ENGINEER AMONG THE VICTIMS

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Feb. 22.— A government troop train carrying a company of infantry from Mexico City destined for Jalapa, was blown up on Saturday afternoon by rebels. The wreck occurred near the Lima station of the Inter-Oceanic railway, 140 miles from Vera Cruz.

The explosion was terrific, demolishing the whole train. All on board, including fifty-five officers and men and the English engineer, were killed. A passenger train, which was in the wake of the train, was fired on by the rebels but escaped by backing rapidly.

TODAY IN CONGRESS

The Senate.

Met at noon.
Senator Swanson read General Washington's farewell address.
Acting Chairman Shively of the foreign relations committee went to the White house and conferred with President Wilson on the Mexican situation.

Director Holmes of the federal bureau of mines told a committee the present price of radium was exorbitant.

The House.

Met at noon.
Colonel Goethals and Secretary Garrison told the appropriations committee of the needs of the canal when it is opened to commerce.

Washington's birthday observed with brief exercises.

Investigative.

George A. Birmingham (Canon Birmingham), the versatile Irish clergyman, playwright and novelist, was talking to a New York reporter about the American business man.

"I'll tell you a story," he said,
"which hits off the American business man well."

"A wife, still young, turned from the window of her sumptuous nineteenth-story apartment, and said to her husband:

"George, ten years ago you promised me that when you made a million you'd retire from business, and then we'd travel and enjoy life."

"Here she began to cry.
"You've got your million now," she sobbed. "Why do you still keep on working?"

"Ah, that's just like you—never satisfied!"
